

Summer & Fall 2006 Wharton Diversity Events

Wharton Diversity & Women's Receptions Fall 2006

Join us at one of our Wharton MBA Diversity Receptions, hosted by admissions representatives and our diverse group of alumni. At a reception, you will learn more about whether an MBA from Wharton is right for you. Explore our programs, curriculum and student life, as well as opportunities for under-represented groups and women within our community. Get an insider's perspective on the Wharton's admissions philosophy and process. For details and to register, please visit <http://mba.wharton.upenn.edu>. All receptions will be held in the evening, most from 7:00-9:00pm.

Explore Wharton: Diversity in Action September 14-15, 2006

We invite you to attend our annual on-campus prospective student event for underrepresented groups, "Explore Wharton: Diversity in Action". Co-sponsored by the African American MBA Association (AAMBAA), Wharton Hispanic American MBA Association (WHAMBAA), Wharton Women in Business (WWIB), Out4Business and the Wharton MBA Admissions Office, this event will give you the opportunity to live the Wharton experience, focusing on opportunities for students of color, women and LGBT. Over two days, you will meet current students and administrators, learn about Wharton's programs and resources, attend classes with Wharton's top faculty, and get valuable insight into our admissions process.

Discover how our distinctively collaborative environment, innovative learning, global access, and diversity of talent, places you at the leading edge of new ideas and practices in the business, non-profit, and government sectors. For more information and to register, visit <http://clubs.wharton.upenn.edu/proday>.

Wharton African Business Forum (WABF), 2006
November 11, 2006

The Wharton Africa Business Forum is an integral component of the Wharton Global Business Forum, held annually, in Mid November; typically 1,300 participants from around the world converge at Wharton to drive discussions on business issues and developments in these regions. Africa, Asia, Europe, India and Latin America

The Africa Forum explores how institutions and individuals are successfully navigating the African business terrain and employing strategies that enable them to uncover and capitalize on the vast opportunities that Africa presents.

This year's theme is: "Africa: Building New Partnerships, Impacting the Global Economy" and aims to highlight the recent trends driving growth in Africa. For information on the past and upcoming business forums you may visit the official site at <http://www.whartonglobal.com/africa>

Whitney M. Young Conference, Philadelphia
November 30 – December 3, 2006

Join us in Philadelphia for the 33rd Annual Whitney M. Young Conference, the largest student-run African-American business conference in the country. As part of this event, AAMBAA and Wharton MBA Admissions will host a prospective event for students of color to learn more about Wharton's Program, Curriculum, Student Experience and the Admissions Process.
